

TRAINING REPORT ON GETTING CANDID: FRAMING THE CONVERSATION AROUND YOUTH SUBSTANCE USE PREVENTION, ORGANISED BY THE NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR MENTAL WELLBEING, WASHINGTON, DC. IN COLLABORATION WITH FOUNDATION FOR CHANGING LIVES AGAINST SUBSTANCE ABUSE, NIGERIA DATED 22ND MARCH 2023

Report prepared

By

Esther Mashika.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Foundation for Changing Lives Against Substance Abuse in response to addressing the urgent need for more addiction workforce that can deliver evidence-based prevention program in Nigeria, requested the NATIONAL COUNCIL FOR MENTAL WELLBEING, WASHINGTON, DC. for a training on GETTING CANDID: FRAMING THE CONVERSATION AROUND YOUTH SUBSTANCE USE PREVENTION. This training was attended by 24 participants working in schools and communities to reducing substance use among youths in Bayelsa state.

At the end of the training, participants were glad for the knowledge gained and requested that more of such trainings is needed and in such a way that it will enable participants to have the opportunity to engage is role play demonstrations as well.

Conclusion: The event was successful and participants expressed feelings of having a wonderful training session with Emma Hayes and Pam Pietruszewski.

PHOTO SPEAK BELOW

Some participants posed for a group photograph in Yenagoa after the training.

Participants listening to a presentation by Emma Hayes

FRONT VIEW: Participants listening to a presentation by Emma Hayes

Participants listening to a presentation by Emma Hayes

Participants listening to a presentation by Pam Pietruszewski

Some participants posed for picture inside the hall of the event immediately after the training

THANK YOU

